

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, MAY, 2, 1892.

NO. 17.

HENRY DAVIS has secured the services of Chas. Peterson, of Cincinnati.

CAPT. J. M. THOMAS proposes to spend $20,000 on the erection of a new opera house.

BLIND TOM is billed for Lexington on the 9th, and will probably come here on the 10th.

Doc Fretwell left for Europe yesterday. Wm. Massey, wife and son will go the last of the week.

Two woodpeckers have arrived, which is the old and infallible rule for plucking corn and going a-birding.

Two of the worst market yesterday was 25 for short, and 22 for long, and the market was depressed.

JO DICKY is evidently looking for a flood. He has a skiff connected on a cut one hundred feet above high water mark.

JIM TAYLOR reports having seen a whip-poorwill in town the other night. That's nothing—there's a whip-poor-will up town every day all the time.

This meeting of the directors of the Riddles Mills & Shawhan's Station turnpike, will be held at Shawhan, on Wednesday, April 10th, for the election of officers.

C. WEHLING, the butcher, will move in a few days, to the building now being repaired by John T. Hinton, on the corner near the Thurston House, opposite Hill's marble works.

FOUND—A brass safe or store key; it has a hole in the end of it, and is altogether a rare key. Also, we have more valuable folding store keys unclaimed. Call at News office.

JUDGE BRECKENRIDGE adjourned court Saturday, without passing sentence on Bill Bradley and John West, and will therefore have to sentence them by postal card, or call an extra term in two weeks.

The fare for the round trip from Paris to Lexington, commencing to-day and continuing during the races, will be but 80 cents. A passenger car will be attached to the freight, which leaves Lexington every evening at 7:30.

LIZZIE SMITH maliciously struck "lawyer" John Jones on the forehead with a rock Saturday, and covered his innocent simplicity with about a quart of unseasoned shed blood. The lawyer demands that his white palm shall see that justice is dealt to the arrogant lassie.

The representatives of the different Kentucky fairs, met at Lexington Friday, and arranged our neighboring fairs for the following dates: Richmond, Aug. 8; Sharpsburg, Aug. 15; Cynthiana, Aug. 22; Lexington, Aug. 19; Paris, Sep. 5; Falmouth, Sep. 12; Mayville, Sep. 19.

COL. CALDWELL reports the following crop sales: 11 two-year-old cattle, at $30 per head; 9 do., at $37.65; 13 do., at $28.00. More machinery on the market than ever before, and business duller. No good horses on the market. A few Eastern buyers for horses bought a few good ones privately.

The President and Board of Directors of the K. C. will subscribe $500,000 to stock in the Three Ports Road from Richmond. The forty miles will at once be finished out into the iron, coal and lumber districts, and in less than eight months we will get coal from new fields. This valuable feeder with the road then running through trains from Knoxville, will keep the main line lively with trains.

The will of the late C. V. Higgins, Sr., was probated yesterday. The homestead residence and furniture and $50,000 in cash were given to the widow; the Texas land to Matt. Stone's children; and the balance of the estate to be equally divided between C. V. Higgins, Jr., and his grandson, W. E. Hibler—of Hibler being established. The estate is estimated at about $300,000. C. V. Higgins, Jr., and Russell Mann were the executors, without security.

Two dollars in advance, pays for a year's subscription to this paper, but it does not entitle a subscriber to a year's free advertising, or even a single line. If we advertise for one man free, we will pay for all. If we make one window, we will make all pay. A new paper filled with about 100 braggings on show windows, we imagine would be in interesting reading to the farmer who pays for the local news of the day. Therefore, we are constrained to remark to all, that our terms for local advertising is 12 cents per line, invariably cash, and only a limited amount of it will be received at that; and not for one dollar per line shall any other than the body type of the reading matter be used.

"OPENING DAY."

Saturday was grand "Opening Day" with our milliners and notion dealers; and the fact having been announced in the local columns of all the county papers, the consequence was, there was a grand rush of ladies in from all parts of the county, as well as a few from some of the neighboring counties. According to the request of Mrs. Charles Foote, one of our most fashionable milliners and mannequins, the News called at her place of business; and, having a weakness for the beautiful, spent an entire hour in lavishing admiration on the beautiful goods in that fascinating line, which he felt he was not an enterprising trader, but more like an adult who had returned to the home of his boyhood.

Miss KENNEY, of Cincinnati, a trimmer, who received her training in one of the largest and most tasteful establishments in that city, took pleasure in showing her guests the many trimmed specimens on hand—hats and bonnets trimmed in Paris, France, as well as those trimmed in Paris, Kentucky, with her own tiny hands. The beauty was a white quimp trim, trimmed in tenebrae, lace with a perotea trim, lined with quincean, thence to match the rich and rare lace. The second specimen was a black-headed quimp, rim of brown and gold broadened velvet, trimmed in rich sunflower ribbon, fastened on the left with lilies of the valley. This was imported from France, and cost $25 in first hands. The next was a honey-combed crown bonnet, home-trimmed with blue Spanish lace, two pale blue ostrich tips, pale blue satin, pink Marshal silk rose and bud, blue water, black ribbon and drings. The next was a white jet crowned bonnet, trimmed in white Spanish lace and panderes, with pearl ornaments. The next was a white French cap hat, lined with cardinal velvet and Flemish point lace, with three double-knotted bows of white grosgrain ribbon on top of the crown and marri- gold flowers, pearl ornaments, and white grosgrain strings.

There were several dozens of elegantly trimmed hats and bonnets, many of which far excelled in beauty and richness hundreds of the home-made "show" hats we noticed in the bon-ton show windows on 4th and 5th streets of Cincinnati last Friday. In the mantua department was a dress not gotten up for show, but just finished for a customer (Miss John W. Liver, of Clintonsville), mounted on a dummy. It was of black watered brocade silk, trimmed around the skirt with the Bernhardt and double-belt plait and thread lace. The general style, paniering and looping were simply gorgeous, magnificent and graceful, even though it bedecked the inanimate dummy.

THE MISSISS MITCHELL were next visited, at their old and established stand on Broadway. Their millinery parlor was illuminated with over one hundred trimmed hats and bonnets, their show windows and mirrors bedecked with wreaths of running vines, sunflowers, water lilies, the beautiful magnolias and all tropical and domestic flowers closely imitating nature by the hand of art. Their immense display of trimmed goods was just too utterly bewildering with beauty for an untrained reporter to attempt to describe. We simply ask those who have not been there to go and see what they have left and daily receiving. These ladies have been in business for six years, and fully understand their business, as the tasty public of the bluegrass region are well aware.

MISS SOPHIA HUTCHINSON'S establishment was next visited. Her room was literally alive with a moving mass of ladies from all parts of the county. She had about 125 trimmed hats and bonnets of all descriptions on display. To attempt a description of them would be an endless task, and to describe a few would do a great injustice to three dozen others just as handsome; therefore we do not, and all attention to the fact that, notwithstanding their sales of many fine ones, they still have a few left, and are daily trimming others just as handsome. Miss Sophia respectfully invites attention to her special opening for Misses and children, on Saturday next.

MISS MOLLY TULLY'S establishment was next visited. This very modest and tasty trimmer had also an extraordinary fine display of goods, ranging from the cheapest child's hat or baby cap to the finest Parisian French clip and foreign trimmed goods. Her stock is selected with great care and taste and is adapted to all classes of society. Miss Molly having been reared in the city, and having for several years trimmed for the prominent families and aristocratic public in Cincinnati, doesn't it no longer pay to say that she can please the most fastidious in the bluegrass region.

Miss Tully also carries a large stock of elegant hats, and rare fancy notions, patterns, etc. Her elegant room is located on the corner of Main and Broadway.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Jesse James is still dead.—(Bill Nye.) There are forty-two circuses traveling in the Union.

The latest thing in way of opera glasses holds about a half pint.

Wonder if Mr. Barnes would allow a fellow to join him by postal card?

This Kentuckian will have something to say about the Colorado potato, this week.

The longer a man lives, the more he learns that people will lie about two dollars.

Telephonic: "Hello! Send around the amount of that little 'bill.' "O, hell!" was the prompt reply.

It is now feared that Ford, the brave youth who shot Jesse James in the back of the head, will lecture.

The voice of the tack-hammer is heard in the land, accompanied by an occasional "Je—Praise the Lord!"

Mrs. Col. Bob Stoner has executed in fine style, a painting of the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, on a china tea plate.

Girls would make a better brakemen than boys, because it is impossible to break their ribs by squeezing.

Hanging is entirely too good for Guiteau; he ought to be boo-lathered and turned loose among our good Indians.

John Stuart wants to borrow a fine saddle horse and a brass band, to take with him to the Conclave at Covington.

Owing to no free passes being given over the Southern road, Craddock hasn't monkeyed over to the gospel stand at Georgetown but a single time.

Darwin's dead, and the Zulu band will wail him into the Promised Land. Of his theory he has a solution: "We'll bet a V it's 'Evolution'."

It would be mythical for one's optics to fall on Bally Paten riding a bicycle, but it would hardly provoke a grin for Bally to fall on one's optics.

A baggage master who had been pronouncing too frequently to the snark-stone, threw himself out of a second story window, under the impression that he was a trunk.

Mourning goods should be laundried with a sad iron.—[Breckinridge News.] We hope it would not be ironical to suggest that bridal goods should laundried a little.

A Judge out in Wisconsin has just decided that a man is liable for what his wife says. If that was the case out here, we know of lots of husbands who would be liable to hide out all their lives.

Capt. Henry came to town. And had "a high old blow" The committee met, with line and brush And washed him white as snow.

—[Breckinridge News.] At Frankfort there is a gay soldier, Who busily loves his armor he buckles; In the battle's clash, he falls back on his cash, And down to the tune of "890" he tucks.

[N. B. Over] to our post having to leave on an early train, this poem is left unfinished.]

Wallace Gruelle must have lots of money; otherwise he couldn't "ford to get the following pun: After all, only that fellow Jesse James who has fallen many a better man. In crossing the steam of time he lost his life at the Ford.

Jesse James' mother says her son has gone to heaven. How terrifying it must be to the Christian whose feet are slipping down to the other shore of the dark river to feel his right growing dim, and reflect that he can't take his revolver with him, nor find a gun store handy when he gets there.—[Bill Nye.]

A Sad History of Marriage. A little kiss, A little kiss, A little ring—it's ended. A little kiss, A little kiss, And lo! the bonds are rendered.

—[Burlington Hawkeye.] The News is announcing a whistling match between the Duffy and Ben Booker. A twenty pound watermelon will be given for the first prize, and a circus ticket the second. The predatory piece will be outrageous real. All Lexington editors will be invited.

The marriage of Miss Maggie Ferguson, the accomplished and attractive daughter of J. W. Ferguson, one of Bourbon's largest land and stock owners, to Mr. Thomas H. Waller, a good looking, clever and successful lumber merchant of Cincinnati, is announced to take place on Friday, June 18th.

The wives of all eminent free and independent Sir Knights, should judge the future by the past, and lay in a good stock of lemons, tea, buttermilk, cold victuals and about a quart of old pop-suckle, for their dear husbands will have a constant yearning for all these life-saving elements on their return from the "Columbia Trip."

The Rescue Fire Company will give a practice meeting to-night.

Some Newport females are preparing to blow their brains out through some brass horns.

Ten fare for round trip from Paris to Covington to attend the Conclave, will be but $3. Tickets good for three days.

Dr. Mary Walker has at last been granted a clerkship in the Pension office. Doc still wears her button-up-infront pants and morocco-logged boots.

Under the new time schedule, Cincinnati are allowed express rates to the High Bridge every Sunday, where they can stop three hours and return on the regular evening train.

O. J. Wiggins, of Covington, and Thomas H. Waller, of Cincinnati, who, by the way, are among the cleverest and most prosperous young business men in those cities, spent Sunday in this city and vicinity.

When a young man comes a long distance to see his sweetheart, and brings her an album as large as a barn door, mounted on wheels and leaves it on the front porch for a surprise, the public needn't be surprised that something wouldn't soon take place in way of a surprise.

Edward Stokes, the slayer of Sim Fisk, gave a reception at his hotel in New York the other night, at which one thousand ladies were present. His parlor was perfumed with sprays of cologne issuing from a silver fountain. One of the many pictures which hung on the wall, was "Nymphs and Satyr" which cost $1,000.

Guitaunt says he would rather go to glory in June than to Auburn for life.

The astounding news that President Arthur dined with a pretty brunette at the Forties Monroe shooting-match, was telegraphed to the Cincinnati Enquirer the other day. The next thing we may expect over the wires will probably be that a negro buried his banjo at a garage party some where near the Penobscot Bay.

Thomas Costello, one of the most popular military drummers who takes in our State, displayed the largest, handsomest, and cheapest set of samples Saturday at the Bourbon House, ever before shown in our city. He represents the Griffith Brothers, who run two large importing and manufacturing houses at Indianapolis, Ind., and Dayton, Ohio. As an evidence that he can understand Cincinnati, he will display his goods two days this week at the Emory hotel, and will assort up to two hundred and all customers in that city, whom he has already largely stocked this Spring.

Mr. Bart Scully's stable from Bourbon county, Ky., comprising thirteen flyers, arrived to-day. Looking out for a dark one among this string. Bart is a second "Summer Coon."—[Lex. News.]

The tenth annual sale of sloughwater cattle by the Hamiltons will be held at Kansas City on May 9th, 10th and 11th. The catalogue embraces one hundred and seventy-one head.

New York, now in Kellier Thomas' stud, is the sire of some good ones. His owner, sold a colt the other day for $1,000 and a five-year-old to Marsh, of Cleveland, for $3,500.

J. E. Miller, from York county, Pa., is here picking up another load of thoroughbred and grade breeders. Also, five other horse men from Pa., are here purchasing harness horses.

Mr. Bart Scully's stable from Bourbon county, Ky., comprising thirteen flyers, arrived to-day. Looking out for a dark one among this string. Bart is a second "Summer Coon."—[Lex. News.]

The Smith, colt, the driver of Kellier Thomas' auction, New York, died of apoplexy, early in the week. He was the trainer of Steadway, Gen. Croxton, Lady Monroe, Mollie, Long, and several good ones.

McIntyre & Swiney have named their chestnut colt by Wendergar dam Katie Pearce, "McNol" in honor of the great St. Louis trainer of that name. This colt is a full brother to Eddie S. and will be handled by Bart Scully.

Turney & Hart made the following sales last Saturday: Wm. G. P. Griffith, Dayton, Ohio, a fine barouche getting to John Ross, a Vindexman—fine and stylish, to Henry Bryant, a nice combined gelding; to R. G. Jefferson, a Harrison Geld gelding.

Mrs. Owens makes a detailed accusation made against Adjutant Gen. Nuckolls, but she here mentions "Nuckolls" is a good deal of a "foxy" for ready relief.—[Lex. Transcript.]

A CARD.

RICHARD REID, of Montgomery county, is a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court of the Third District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Gov. BLACKBURN says he will not call an extra session of the Legislature.

A Georgia man has made good use of a bundle of Confederate bonds by papering his house with them.

SEVERAL good Indians were hung and shot last week. The poor boys are like autumn leaves, passing away.

TOMBSTONE, Arizona, has 500 gamblers among its population. Would it not be daisy of a place for prosecuting attorney Bristol?

Among the great men who have died within the last twelve months are Darwin, Emerson, Vanuotien, and James and John J. King.

The excitement over the sudden decease of the Hon. J. Vance, of Missouri, has apparently subsided. But it is understood that Governor Crittenden does not go out after dark.

If Congress should adjourn with outcheapening the price of whiskey, the happy moonshiner will continue to be the eviled man of the common people in Eastern Kentucky.

GEN. JOE SHREVE says Jesse James was a delegate to the Chicago convention from Mississippi, under the name of Johnson, and Governor Crittenden is inclined to credit the story.

TEXAS farmers send forth the alarm that the caterpillars have attacked their wheat. What is the matter with the gay festive grasshopper that he can't work all that territory himself?

BILL NYE, editor of the Laramie Boomerang, sells his paper at $2. for one year, or $20.00 for 1,000 years. Special terms to postmasters and postal clerks: $150 for 200 years, and a lock of hair and size of coffin worn by each subscriber required.

Some thieves at Harrisburg, Penn., not only stole the all provisions in a house the other night, but carried off half a ton of coal without arousing the family. Those thieves are supposed to be from Paris, Ky., where a car load of coal was carried off in sacks in one night.

CAPT. STOKES, a Tennessee fisherman, became so engrossed in his sport that he did not fight off the pests called buffalo gnats, and their bites were so numerous and poisonous that he died from the effect. We suggest that a few of those gnats be imported and distributed along all the fishing streams in Bourbon.

A TERRIBLE cyclone passed over Mason and Lewis counties last week. Several houses in the suburbs of Maysville were wrecked, and several tobacco barns and tenement houses were destroyed. In the county it took up in the air and killed a fine stallion and jack for Amos Means, and uprooted full-grown trees and tore down barns, doing immense damage.

EX-STATE SENATOR Cunningham, of Paris, Bourbon county, Ky., is talked of for Judge of the Superior Court of this district. He is an excellent lawyer, of a judicial turn of mind, and an eminently just man; beset with no idiosyncrasies or prejudices to warp his decisions, if elected to the Judgeship of the Superior Court. His qualifications are second to no candidate for the position. Bourbon has always stood by Fayette; other things being equal, Fayette should stand by Bourbon.—[Lexington Transcript.]

ELDER J. W. McGARVEY writes like a man with only one kidney and no liver. He has garnered a lot of distorted facts, malicious lies, and ignorant misrepresentations from a strange and peculiar people and unscrupulous reporters, and has sifted the conglomerated mass through an old worn out sectarian sieve, and has given forth to a mongrel pup—a dogma dog with one eye and one nostril, that can't see or scent a gospel fact except in Mr. Campbell's little covey which he has huddled and kept a point on all his life. He slings mud at Mr. Barnes and his thousands of admiring friends and followers in a very unkind and unjust way. He did not visit Paris, Cynthia or Georgetown and investigate like all true and logical men should before foaling a jumbled conglomeration of opinions, but issued a dogma as before stated, and toppled over Mr. Barnes' mode of salvation by attempting to refute the statement of "Accept Jesus as your Savior as best you can." His deduction is, of course, "accept him as best you cannot." This is but a sample of his arguments, but it will suffice to show the character of his little covey. He also berates the evangelist because he does not establish church edifices and ring associations for the purpose of supporting thousands of young chuckleheads in luxuriance, for the express purpose of injecting Puritanism, superstitions and dogmas terrorizing with fear and cowardice, in lieu of thoughts abundant with love, respect and reason.

We will here dismiss the theme, and in closing will say that Mr. McGarvey has many friends and followers here in and out of the field, that are shocked at his hasty and unkind conclusion, which was deduced from such an unfair and biased standpoint. We hope that he will go and hear Mr. Barnes through an entire series of sermons, and deal with him as a large-hearted, bold investigator should, whether it suits his early theological training or not.

A SERMON on sectarianism was preached last Sunday in town. The orator persecuted all others but his own—good fellow that—acts upon the Chinese principle "persecute all others and plunder your Christianity." What a comment upon Christianity.

MR. JOHN GARY died Saturday, after a lingering illness of several days.

ANDY FANNING got struck on the head with a club, by James Delaney, and agonized in spasms for several days.

A dispatch from Carlisle to the Enquirer has the following: A cavalry located on the farm of Benjamin Gore, sen., one mile east of here, blew up with terrific violence just before noon to-day, killing Daniel Delaney, the engineer, outright, and bringing up several others, but not seriously. The mill was the property of James Collier, of Millersburg, Ky., and is a complete wreck. Too much steam was the cause of the explosion. The engineer tried to stop the escape valve to get more steam. Delaney was blown just 270 feet from where he was standing when the accident occurred. He was killed and favorably known through the county, and leaves a wife and six children at his home near the Lower Blue Lick Springs. Fragments of the wreck were found near a quarter of a mile from the scene of the disaster, and the main part of the boiler, weighing about two thousand lbs., passed through the air about five feet from the ground, going directly over the head of Benjamin Gore, sen., who was leaning over, boring in a log, a fragment knocking the auger violently out of his hand, and scorching him, and struck the body of his son, blowing him up the ground for some twenty yards, landing fully five hundred feet from the mill. Another piece, passing over the heads of two of Mr. Gore's sons threw them violently into a branch some 20 feet away, bruising them to some extent.

MR. JOHN G. BLAIR, a well-known farmer and politician of this county, was sitting on a log within thirty feet of the boiler when it blew up, and was not hurt in any way, save a little bruise on his hand. A four-horse team used to haul logs was standing near, and ran off by the side of the wagon and injuring themselves considerably. Over a hundred persons from town visited the wreck in the course of two hours after it occurred. This is the second boiler explosion attended with loss of life in this vicinity within three years.

Boothe, and the window of the toll-house near J. H. Ingles was broken out. They are supposed to be the same party who called at Hutchinson about twelve o'clock p. m. and called for oysters and cartridges but would come in. After leaving Hutchinson they went towards the Mayville place, firing several shots around the house of A. F. Corbin, and Anthony Thomas, cold, and proceeded to the house of Bev. W. Dorsey and threw rocks and fired several shots into the house, and also smashed the windows of the house occupied by John Powell, cold.

Master Commis'er's Sale

—OF—

45 Acres Bourbon Land

By virtue of a judgement of sale rendered by the Bourbon Court, at the Apr. term 1882, in an action there pending of Letitia Curli Executrix et al., against Letitia Curli et al., I will sell at the courthouse door in Paris, Ky., on Saturday, May 30th, 1882, a tract of land situated in Bourbon County, containing forty-five acres, and described as follows: "Bound on the North by the land owned by the heirs of Benjamin Howe, on the South by the land owned by James Russell, on the East by the land owned by David Penn, and on the West by the land owned by James Russell and the heirs of Benjamin Howe, and the same tract of land upon which the decedent, John Curli was living at the time of his death, and the same upon which the plaintiff Letitia Curli now resides."

Said land is within a few miles of Paris, and has on it a residence, stable etc. Said sale will be made for the purpose of paying the decedent's debts, costs and expenses of sale which will amount to about $1,200, and also for the purpose of division among the husband's devisees. Terms: Six months credit for the purchase money bearing interest from day of sale until paid at the rate of six per cent per annum, for which the purchaser will be required to execute his bond with good and approved security, having the face of a judgement.

Milinery Goods.
 I would respectfully announce to the public that I am now in receipt of a very select stock of Spanish Milinery Goods, and am prepared to supply the wants of the most fastidious in anything pertaining to the line of business. My shop being in my residence on High street, will enable me to deduct a large per cent. from prices, saved from paying, extravagant rents on a more public thoroughfare.
 I would be pleased to have all the ladies call.
 Respectfully

IT IS A RATTLER!

In these United States of America there is one, and only one, enterprising Newspaper, "Published for the People Now on Earth," which prints the news entirely from everywhere, regardless of who it hurts or who it benefits. This is saying a great deal, but it is the truth. The name of the Paper is

THE BAZOO

Published at Sedalia, MO., By J. West Goodwin.

It is to-day the only Journal in the United States called "BAZOO," named by its founder, from the Cherokee Indian language, and signifies "Much Wind." This paper owns a Telegraph franchise, which fills its columns daily with the cream of the news from coast to coast, and from the North Pole to the Equivocal of Florida. Bits of Sensation, the best of Short Sermons, and full details of weddings, deaths and Crime, finds a special artist always ready to give the world through the medium of the most skilled and cheery reporters that can be employed for love or money, or both, the news just as it is, without color or exaggeration.

Please let it be impressed on your mind that this is a paper for those now living, deals with everything just as it is, as the great mass of American people want to be dealt with.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not immediately cured. It checks falling of the hair, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed, while to brassy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair
 The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

Cassius M. Clay, Jr., is the sire of Harry Clay 2:24, and of Kentucky Clay that got the dams of Bonanza 2:24, Annette 2:25, &c. Cassius M. Clay, the sire of Cass M. Clay, Jr., which here appears, got M. Tateen, 2:25, and he was the sire of Lucy 2:18, and grandchild of Hensley 2:14.

In spite of his limited opportunities Caliban is proving himself one of the truest sires of Kentucky; his produce are all fine-sized, finely gated, full of courage. Unfortunately for him only two of his get—Cassier and Cyclone—have been trained at all. As a specimen of his get we invite persons to call at Cane Ridge Stock Farm and see fourteen of his colts dropped the past year. For further particulars address

THE HIGH-BRED TROTTER STALLION,

GOLDSMITH,

Will make the season of 1882, at my stable, 2 miles east of Millersburg, on the Ruddle Mills place.

$25 To Insure a Living Colt.

Money down when mare foals or is parted with.

GOLDSMITH is a rich brown, 15 hands, 3 inches high; weighs 1100 lbs., sound, and a No. 1 sire of road and harness horses. His colts have good size and action.

GOLDSMITH was sired by the renowned "Bryant's" Hambletonian, his dam by Ind. Trustee (imported). Mares from a distance will be kept 30 days on grass free of charge, but no responsibility for escapes.

Also two of the best black Jacks in Kentucky will serve at $10, to insure as above.

A lien will be retained on all colts of Horse and Jacks until season money is paid.

No variation will be made from above terms, unless four or more mares are bred by one man.

ALEX. MCCLINTOCK,
 MILLERSBURG, KY., March 7, '82.

The French Norman Horse.

Louis Napoleon

Will stand the present season at our farm on the Mayville & Lexington turnpike, half way between Paris and Millersburg, at $15 to insure a living colt; money when the foal is born, or is parted with. A lien will be retained on all colts until season money is paid.

LOUIS NAPOLEON is a grey, 16 1/2 hands high, by Imp. Charles (a French Norman), and out of a three-quarters Norman and a quarter blood Black Hawk Morgan mare.

Persons wishing to breed large, stylish coach horses, will do well to see this horse before breeding.

Grass at ten cents per day will be charged mares from a distance.

GHEEN CLAY.

MILLIGAN & PERRY

There are other good cooking stoves and we keep them constantly in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in every respect over all others, they are the
